Snow Emergency Information

Notifications. Signs shall be erected at the main entrances to the City and entrances to all city parking lots notifying the public that parking restrictions are in effect between October 1 and May 31. This may also be posted on the city social media page and posted on the city website during the months of October through May.

The City of Nevada is not required to provide notice when the Snow Ordinance goes into effect. To avoid a $50 parking ticket, please do not park on city streets or parking lots when it snows. If you have questions please contact the Nevada Public Safety Department at 515-382-4305.

The City offices will be closed on November 12 for Veteran's day (except the library), and November 22 and 23 for Thanksgiving

National Hunger & Homelessness Awareness Week:

November 12 – 17

All month long the library will be collecting non-perishable food items and personal care items, and we're offering fine amnesty in conjunction with your donation. If you have an overdue book and you return it with an item for the Community Cupboard, we will waive the overdue fine. If you have older fines on your account for items that have already been returned, we will cut those fines in half with your non-perishable item to donate.

Computer Class (File Management): November 27, 7:00 p.m.

Join us for a monthly program where we'll cover different computer use topics. This week we'll be looking at file management, including how to save a file and where those saved files go, how to move files around, and how to organize your files in a useable way. Participants should have experience using a mouse and keyboard.
